

#ALONE

Logline

A horror experience with the dread of Don't Breathe and the paranoia of The Strangers as a famous and socially anxious influencer becomes the first resident of a luxury complex, only to be terrorized by a relentless intruder with a violent agenda.

Genre & Format

- Comedy Horror
- Visceral Gore
- Feature
- Duration: 97 minutes

Uniqueness

Featuring ALL LATINO characters, the horror unfolds inside an extravagant condo complex designed for the ultra elite, and explores the absurdity and the dark side of influencer culture.

Target Audience

Fans of Genre-Bending; edge-of-your seat thrillers. Males and females 18-40 who follow or are influencers; enjoy creator culture. Genre lovers of home invasion stories with a brutal twist.

Visual Mood

Deceptively stylish with a vibrant, yet menacing color palette. Wealth porn that creates a sense of paranoia and entrapment. Glossy, labyrinthine atmosphere. Nightmarish and chaotic tones.

Angie Comer

Writer | Director
www.angiecomer.rocks
angiec@abbynoramlprods.com

- #ALONE speaks directly to what audiences are craving right now—high-concept thrillers.
- Silence and tension hit harder.
- Terror isn't distant or imagined. It's already here.
- Not just timely...#ALONE is inevitable.

